Eligibility Requirements

Academic Qualifications

- A player must be homeschooled meaning that a player must be receiving at least 51% of their education from one of the following sources:
 - Taught at home by the player's parents, grandparents and/or legal guardian.
 - Taught at home, or someone else's home, by another homeschool parent or tutor.
 - Taught at a central location (i.e. classes taught through a homeschool coop or a homeschool enrichment program) by a homeschool parent, tutor or enrichment program instructor.
- A player is not considered homeschooled if 50% or more of their education is obtained from a private or public school or from college or vocational/technical classes taken at a non-homeschool institution.
- A player must be living at home with a parent or guardian.
- A player is ineligible if that player has gone through a homeschool, public school, or private school high school graduation ceremony prior to that season's first game.
- A player must be passing all courses during the active season in order to participate in a contest or tournament. In performing the role of administrator for the homeschool, the parent is solely responsible for enforcing this rule.

Age Qualifications

- A player is ineligible to play on any team on the next September 1st following that player's 19th birthday.
- A player is ineligible to play on a middle school team on the next September 1st following that player's 15th birthday.

Transfers and Expulsions

- If a player started the season on another homeschool, public, or private school team, no transfer shall be allowed during the season without the approval of the AHSA Board.
- If a player was expelled from a public or private school during the academic school year or in the year prior, no transfer shall be allowed without the approval of the AHSA Board.
- A player cannot play on another homeschool, public, or private school team in the same sport at the same time as playing on an AHSA sponsored team.

Exceptions

- Exceptions to any eligibility requirement (except age limitations) may be made only by express approval of the AHSA Board. No exceptions will be permitted to the age limitations.
