

Frequently Asked Questions About AHSA

What is AHSA?	We are the Albuquerque Home School Athletic Association - an organization supporting competitive athletic opportunities for homeschoolers in the Albuquerque Metropolitan area. We come alongside families and coaches to assist in organization, fundraising, and communication.
What is your mission statement?	The Mission of the Albuquerque Home School Athletic Association is to bring glory to God by providing an opportunity for home school students to participate in competitive athletic programs under Christian leadership in order to develop Christian character and athletic skill.
Which sports will be offered in the 2012/2013 school year?	Fall 2012: Mid School Girls Volleyball, Mid School Co-ed Tennis, High School Co-ed Soccer, Co-ed Cross Country Fall/Winter: High School Girls and Boys Basketball, Mid School Girls and Boys Basketball Spring 2013: Mid School Co-ed Track and Field, High School Girls and Boys Volleyball, High School Co-ed Tennis
Will more sports be added?	We hope to have more sports available in the future. We are a parent-based organization. If you are an individual interested in organizing an individual or team sport, please contact us.
Who do you compete against?	We play other homeschoolers, private schools and public schools. Our teams compete locally in various leagues. Some of our teams also compete regionally and nationally.
How much does it cost?	Annual membership is $20 per family for AHSA. In addition, each sport charges the athlete(s) the cost to cover league entry fees, usage of facilities, insurance, uniforms, etc. These costs vary by sport and were between $40 and $80 for the 2011-2012 seasons. They are expected to stay close to these same amounts for the 2012-2013 seasons. These costs do not include travel costs.
Who can I contact to get more information?	Our website address is www.ahsasports.org or e-mail us at ahsahomeschoolsports@gmail.com or webmaster@ahsasports.org
What ages of children do your programs cover?	We compete competitively in Mid School and High School. If we don't have a team that meets the age of your child, don't lose heart! Those with a desire to form competitive teams for younger teams are urged to contact us.
