

Mission Statement

The mission of Albuquerque Home School Athletic Association is to provide an opportunity for home school students to participate in competitive athletic programs under Christian leadership in order to develop Christian character and athletic skill and to bring glory to God.